

Bled City Break

Bled – the jewel of Alps

Slovenia has only one island but its uniqueness makes it more attractive than many an archipelago. Sheltered by picturesque mountains, the island reigns in the middle of an Alpine lake. Its charm has made it a symbol for centuries of a town to which guests from all over the world love to return. This town, which has already existed for a thousand years, is Bled.

What to do?

Enjoy one hour walk around the Bled lake; after walk we suggest you to stop at any of confectionery or coffee bar and taste original Bled cream cake ("kremšnita").

Adventure park Bled

Trees, steel cables, footbridge, bars, suspensions bridges, carabiners - visit of the Adventure park is new experience for whole family. Adventure park Bled is a park of unique challenges. It is set up in the natural environment of trees. And this is what gives it a special allure. Healthily spend day in nature with lots of fun for everybody – children and adults, singles, couples, whole family, with friends or in groups. If you are looking for a fantastic fun day outdoor you should visit new Adventure park.

Vintgar Gorge

The Vintgar gorge is one of the most popular natural features in Slovenia. From Bled the route leads north towards the village of Podhom. All along the road there are clear signs for Vintgar, and then by local roads the route leads to the entrance to the gorge itself (3.5 km from Bled). The gorge has been arranged for visitors for more than a hundred years. Along the narrow passage, where the Radovna river thrashes loudly against its rocky confines, there are paths, galleries and bridges constructed in the rock. The trail runs through the 1600 m long gorge.

Bohinj lake and Savica waterfall

Bohinj Lake has numerous inflows, the most important one is the Savica. Its water bursts from the underground of the Dolina sedmerih jezer (The Seven Triglav Lakes Valley) in the walls of Komarča as Savica Waterfall, which is the most famous Slovenian waterfall.

Soca river valley (130 km)

Due to its lush green colour, the Soča, one of Slovenia's most beautiful and cleanest rivers, has been referred to as "the emerald river". It is renowned worldwide not only for its unique beauty but also for its white water rapids offering some of the best adrenaline-pumping water sports experiences in this part of Europe, including rafting, kayaking and canyoning.

Arboretum Volčji Potok (20 km)

The Volčji Potok Arboretum is located on the edge of the Kamniško polje plain. It is one of Slovenia's most frequented botanical gardens, worth visiting at any time of the year. Lying on an 80-hectare site, it supports 4,500 perennial flower, bush and tree species from around the world. The Arboretum's numerous plant beds have been conceived in such a way that different plant species complement each other but are at the same time displayed in all their individual beauty. The Arboretum's energy fields are believed to have a beneficial effect on human body's energy centres.

Postojna cave (53 km)

The Postojna Caves, one of Slovenia's most spectacular natural sights, consist of a 27-kilometre underground system of passages, tunnels, galleries and chambers with wonderful dripstones. The caves, also famous for providing home to the olm (Proteus anguinus), an amphibian salamander endemic to subterranean waters of southern Europe, can be viewed from a small cave train.

Golf Bled

Bled golf course is the oldest in Slovenia, dating back to 1937. It is said by many to be one of the most beautiful courses in Europe. Covering more than 100 hectares with two courses designed by Donald Harradine, it is also the biggest in Slovenia. It is a challenge to new golfers and professionals alike, while Bled's unique natural environment, crowned by Stol, the highest mountain in the Karavanke mountain range, and the special nature of the course offer plenty of excitement for everyone. As well as two courses, the 18-hole King's Course and the 9-hole Lake Course, Bled Golf Course also features a driving range for long and short play and a pitching and putting green.
